ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1912.

- In this year there will be four eclipses, two of the Sun and two of the Moon.
- I. The first will be a partial eclipse of the Moon, April 1st, invisible in the United States.
 - II. The second will be a central eclipse of the Sun, April 17th, visible generally east of the Mississippi river as a partial eclipse, the sun rising eclipsed.
 - III. The third will be a partial eclipse of the Moon, September 26th, the Moon setting in the Eastern United States as the eclipse begins.
 - IV. The fourth will be a total eclipse of the Sun, invisible in the United States except as a very small partial eclipse as the Sun rises in Florida and neighboring states. Visible generally over South America, where the line of totality will extend in a line from Quito to Rio Janeiro.

The calculations for this Almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia, and are expressed in Eastern standard time. For places not on the standard meridian and standard time is kept, the following rule applies: For places west of the 75th meridian, add in the proportion of four minutes for each degree of difference of longitude; for places east, subtract. For moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, simply reduce from Eastern to required standard.—A. THOS. G. APPLE.

Last Quarter	11th, 2 o'clock, 43 min., morning.

FOREWORD.

A greeting to all the members of the 35,000 families whose eyes see these pages. May the Master who has kept you all your days make you glad in His Church, keep you strong and cheerful in your faith, happy in His service, and go with you the rest of your journey homeward.

LOYALTY.

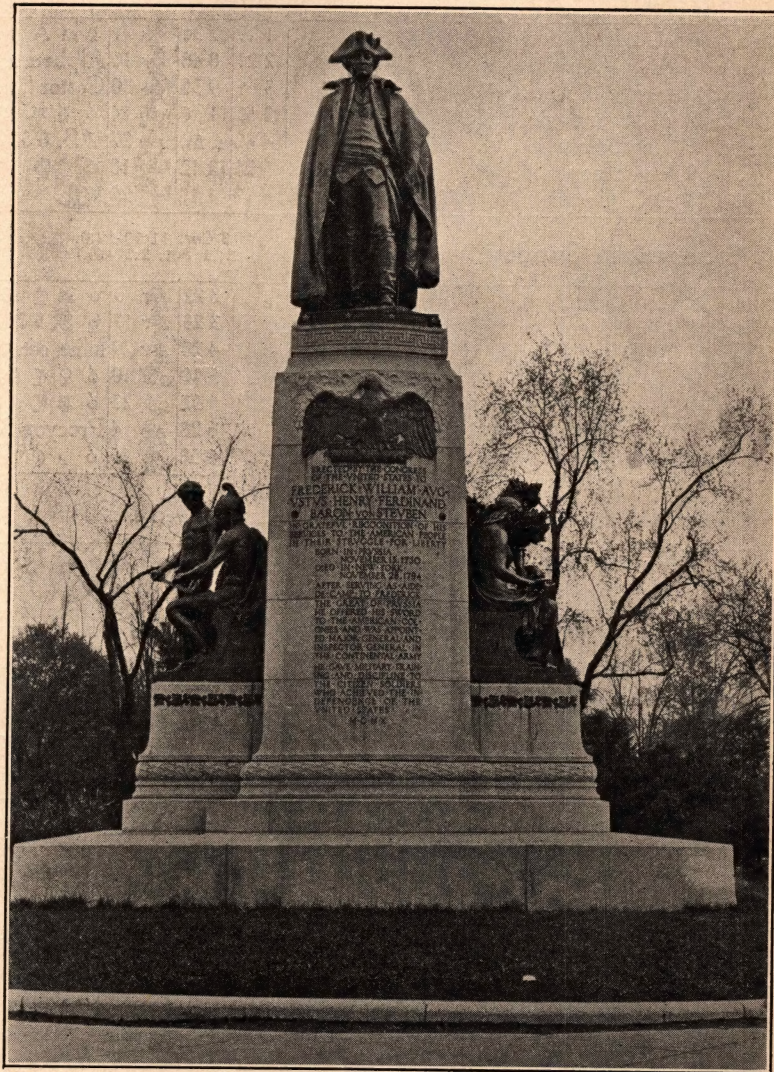

Those who read these pages are most likely happy in this: They need not apologize for their ancestry, nor for their Church. They have reason to be proud of both. They are of good blood and of good spiritual ancestry. They should be loyal, therefore, to the Church of their fathers. They can be loyal without being sectarian, bigoted or puffed up. They can be proud in a godly way of the history of their Church. She is "the Martyr Church" of Protestantism. If they read and study these pages and see what a great work she has, they can pray and work for her.

PATRIOTISM.

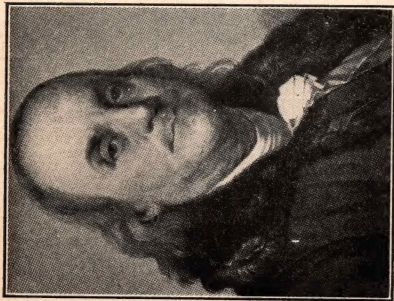

Patriotism and religion always go hand in hand. Religion makes good, loyal citizens. The Church safeguards the state. Our forefathers left the Palatinate because they lost all for love of country. In America they lived in frontier colonies and were a protection to the English. Pennsylvania German wagons carried the provisions of Burgoyne and Washington on their way to Braddock. The Germans sold their grain for less to Washington at Valley Forge rather than to the English in Philadelphia. A great German soldier, a member of the Reformed Church, trained the Continental forces and welded them into an army. To this friend of Washington and America, Baron von Steuben, the American Congress last year erected a statue at Washington and presented a duplicate to the German emperor and German people to be erected at Potsdam.

Every wide-awake Christian reads his Bible and the current literature of his church.

MONUMENT—BARON VON STEUBEN.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.
Patron of Franklin College.

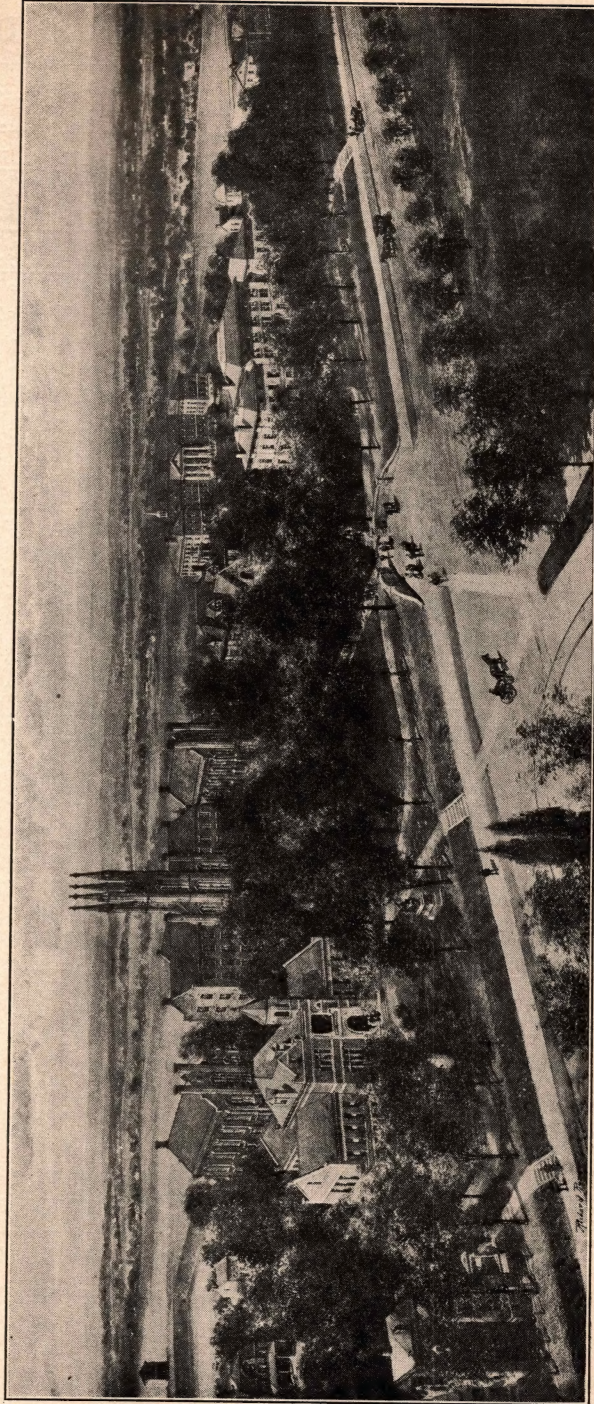

Our early Reformed settlers in America were well educated. They believed in an educated ministry, and did all in their power to give their children an education. Along side the church they built a school house. Colleges and seminaries were founded by their descendants as soon as they had the means.

This year, at Lancaster, the 125th Anniversary of Franklin and Marshall College
Will be celebrated.

Last year, at Mercersburg, the 75th of Marshall College was observed.

NEW

HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY, TIFFIN, OHIO.

The Reformed Church, as "The Church of the Word of God," has naturally always laid great stress on teaching. She has always practised Christian nurture, in the family, the school, and the catechetical class. She educates the mind, conscience and heart in the Word of God, and trains the will in the practice of the same. She aims to produce faith in the heart, not by ecclesiastical performances and ceremonies, not by fanatical excitement of the feelings, but by presenting the truth and love of God in all their winsome light and warmth.

Let us continue our practice of teaching the young—in the family, the school and the catechetical class. But let us not make the mistake of ending our teaching with the confirmation of our young people and their first communion. In such a time as ours, with its unrest and with its passion for the things of this world, our care must be unceasing and our instruction unending.

YUNDT MEMORIAL GATEWAY—BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME.

In all the world there is nothing so valuable or so interesting as boys and girls. If you want to be of real use in the world, do something for them. The greatest of all studies is the study of children. You may not be able to preach or be a foreign missionary, or a charity worker, but anyone and everyone can help some boy or girl.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL, HUNGARIAN MISSION, HOMESTEAD, PA.

Hundreds of Summer Vacation Schools were held last year in the larger cities of America. In many cases they were held in the Sunday-school room of a church. The Bible was the chief text-book. Seventy-five per cent. of the pupils were children of foreign-born parents. Mr. Louis Biringi, a Hungarian student at Lancaster, held such a school at Homestead. Attendance, fifty.

The home mission work of the Christian Church is fundamental patriotism. It goes down to those forces which shape society, the religious impulses. By erecting the ideals of Christianity in the breast of individuals, the Gospel does most to purify and strengthen the state. A church is a better protection to a community than a regiment of soldiers. Even love of country burns most brightly in the hearts of those who have been educated by the Bible.

The two pictures on this page are illustrations, the one of what we are doing, the other of what it is to be hoped the Church will soon do. The mission church at Louisville is an object of interest because to it was given last November the gifts of the boys and girls on Home Mission Day in the Sunday-school. It is one of the one hundred and seventy-five missions supported by the Church. Of these one hundred and eighteen are English, fifty-seven German, nine Hungarian, three Bohemian and one Japanese. The other is the mission church erected in Cuba, through the efforts of Rev. H. E. Kilmer. It was dedicated free of debt, June 11, 1911. It is under the care of East Ohio Classis. Let us hope the Reformed Church will some time soon join the other churches of America in doing mission work in Cuba and in our colonies.

THE NEW MISSIONARIES

OUR FOREIGN MISSION WORK.

MISS EMMA KROEGER.

There are thirty-seven foreign missionaries in the service of the Church. Twenty labor in Japan and seventeen in China. Ten do evangelistic work; twenty-two educational, and five medical.

The salaries of ten missionaries are now being paid by congregations and institutions. Salary of a married man is $1,200; single man, $700, and single lady, $600.

The foreign missionary is both a witness for Christ, who calls him, and of the Church who sends him to the non-Christian world.

Length of service on the field for a married missionary is seven years, and for a single, five years. Furlough at home, fifteen months.

There are fifty out-stations in our Japan Mission and five in our China Mission. The cost of support of an out-station, including a native evangelist and Bible woman, varies from $200 to $600. Here are special objects for the extra gifts of congregations, individuals and institutions.

FOREIGN MISSION DAY ON FEBRUARY 11, 1912.

Every congregation should observe it by using the splendid service issued by the Board.

The ANNUITY BOND is a mutual benefit: You give the Church a $1,000 for immediate use in her foreign mission work, and the Board pays you a $50 annuity for life.

A man's will is an index to his heart.

OUR WORKERS AT SHENCHOWFU, CHINA.

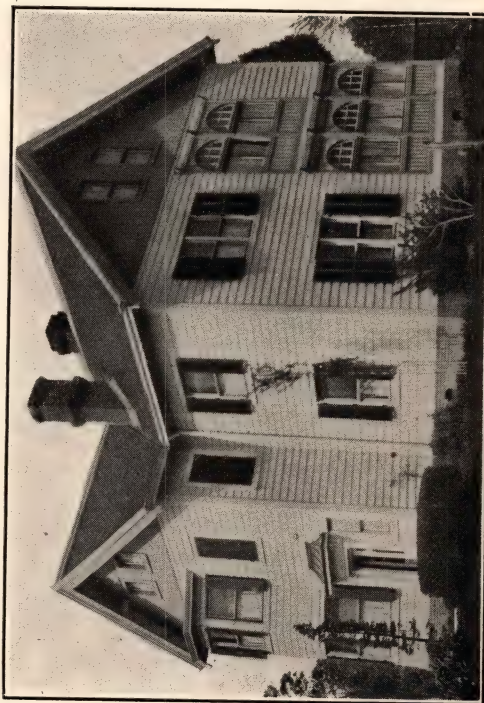

"To talk of the failure of Foreign Missions is to talk at once like an ignorant and like a faithless man."—Canon Farrar.

To properly house the present missionary force in Japan, the Board needs a residence in Tokyo for Rev. H. K. Miller; at Yamagata, for Rev. C. D. Kriete; at Sendai, for Rev. J. P. Moore, D. D., and Rev. Elmer H. Zaugg. In our China Mission, Rev. J. Frank Bucher and Rev. Ward Hartman are without homes. What a fine thing it will be for the Church on Foreign Mission Day to provide the funds for these residences.

It is a pleasure to note the fact that with this steady increase of interest in the foreign work there has been a larger growth of interest in the home work. All this proves the saying true of Thomas Chalmers that "Foreign Missions act on Home Missions not by exhaustion, but by fermentation."

The receipts for Foreign Missions by decades in the last thirty years are as follows:

1879-1889	$98,656.28
1889-1899	252,945.16
1899-1909	549,929.44

MAKING BRICKS WITHOUT STRAW.

Home Mission work in a big city, and that is the place to found missions to-day, is hard work at best. It would be easier if the missionary and his people had money to put up a church. Years ago the missionary was left to his wits to win funds for this purpose. In recent years the Mission Board has secured three hundred Church-building Funds, amounting to nearly $200,000, which is loaned to missions at a nominal rate of interest. But what is $200,000 among so many missions! We need more funds.

The Board of Home Missions has inaugurated a "Forward Movement," which is to culminate, in November, 1913, when we shall celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of General Synod's Board of Home Missions. The slogan of the campaign is: At least one $500 Church-building Fund in every congregation. General Synod has heartily endorsed the movement. Make ready to take part. Let each church or charge raise a "Fund" and then hold a jubilee service which the children of to-day will ask about in 1963 at the centennial service.

Year after year our young people are going from the country to the city; and on this account our country people should feel the deepest interest in home missions, which in large measure takes care of these precious young people. The country should gladly help the city in this matter.

Thousands of our people will welcome a good suggestion concerning the making of a will; and a wise pastor or elder can make the suggestion without fear of offense.

THE REFORMED CHURCH.

The Reformed Church traces its history back to Jesus and the Apostles. She has always regarded herself as the old and original Church of Christ reformed—on the one hand, stripped of error, on the other, clothed with new power and life. The early Christian Church was one Church in many lands. Later the Universal Church divided, East and West, into the Greek Catholic and the Latin, or Roman Catholic. In the sixteenth century, the Western Church, through a great intellectual, social, moral and especially spiritual revolution, divided into Roman Catholic and Protestant. The forces of the Reformation advanced like a great army in three divisions: on the right, the Lutherans; in the center, the Reformed; on the left, the Anabaptists. The Reformed movement had as its leader Ulrich Zwingli, and after his death, John Calvin. It spread over Europe and became an organized body in many countries. In Holland, the Dutch Reformed; in Germany, the German Reformed; in France, the Huguenot; in Scotland, the Presbyterian; in England, the Episcopalian. The Reformed family of churches is made up of all those churches which are not Lutheran, Anabaptist or Catholic.

The Reformed Church in the United States is composed mainly of the descendants of the German, Swiss, and French Reformed people, who for conscience sake left Europe and settled in America. Their descendants are thoroughly Americanized and the Reformed Church is an American Church. Her closest kin are the Lutherans, on the one hand, and the Dutch Reformed, the Presbyterians, the Congregationalists and the Episcopalians on the other. But owing to her German origin and the development of her original and distinctive type of life, she differs from all these. In spirit, she is the most liberal, most irenic, most generous of all churches. In government, she is democratic, avoiding the evils of a hierarchy, on the one hand, and those of congregationalism, on the other. In doctrine, she emphasizes the union of the believer with God through Jesus Christ by His Word and Spirit. The Church, the ministry, the sacraments, forms of worship, and forms of government, are but means of grace. She avoids the extremes of predestination, of emotionalism, and of the so-called "corporeal real presence." True faith, real goodness and genuine enthusiasm she holds are created in the heart by preaching Jesus and His Gospel. In life and spirit, the Reformed Church makes Jesus central. For that reason she is known as "The Church of the Word." For the same reason she stands for educational religion. She believes in an educated ministry, and in rearing children as children of God and members of this Church. Accordingly, she practices Christian nurture in the family, the school and the catechetical class.

The Pastor His Own Evangelist

Introduction by J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D.

THIS volume contains the most practical evangelistic help that a pastor can get. Two weeks' services planned and prepared—texts, suggestions, seed thoughts, illustrations—in such abundance that it will take years to exhaust the book's resources. Every pastor who is called upon to carry on special revival meetings will welcome the inspiration and guidance furnished by this volume and it will be indispensable to those preachers whose church depend on them personally to conduct such meetings.

INDIVIDUAL Private Communion Service

For several years there has been a demand for a Private Communion Service embodying the individual idea. Pastors frequently are called upon to administer the Lord's Supper to members who desire to commune with the person who is sick, and it often happens that they must pass from one house to another in administering private communions, and the conveniences are not always at hand to cleanse the cup.

The need of a thoroughly sanitary private communion service has been recognized for a long time by manufacturers of communion ware, but how to make a service practical in size and arrangement proved rather difficult of solution. Recently we were called into consultation on the subject with one of the leading firms in Philadelphia, and the services offered for sale embody the practical ideas of pastors and manufacturer.

The Latest Facilities for Class-room and Laboratory Work.

The elective system is used, but with moderation. Each course is made broad enough to secure thorough discipline and harmonious development at the same time that it widens out and affords room for choice in order that time may be used to the best advantage and the student be led on to thorough study and independent research. Ancient and Modern Languages, History, Mathematics, Social and Political Science, Philosophy (including Psychology, Aesthetics and Ethics), English Literature, Rhetoric and Oratory, Astronomy, Geology, Physics, Chemistry and the various aspects of Biology, Botany, Zoölogy, Physiology, Embrology, Histology and Anatomy, all receive due attention under the most competent teachers.

FACILITIES

The Daniel Scholl Observatory, the DePeyster Library, the Literary Societies, with their Libraries; the Gymnasium; the new Science Building, with unsurpassed facilities in its new Laboratories, making full provision for Physics, Chemistry, Assaying, Geology and Biology in all Branches.

SPECIAL CARE IS GIVEN TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT OF EACH STUDENT BY A LARGE FACULTY OF ABLE AND EXPERIENCED TEACHERS.

A magnificent campus of fifty-two acres includes a complete athletic field.

The expenses are very moderate.
